Wild Neighbourhood Festival

To celebrate Crunniú na nÓg, a national day of free creativity for children and young people.

1.00pm - 5.00pm | Saturday 10 June
DCU All Hallows Campus

Wild Neighbourhood

Wild Neighbourhood has engaged with artists and creatives to develop art workshops, performances, nature tours, games, storytelling and a school outreach project with Grace Park Educate Together NS. This festival places a spotlight on our local habitat including: the local animals, trees, plants and geography of the All Hallows campus grounds.

Wild Neighbourhood is a collaboration between DCU and Grasshopper Events to celebrate Cruinniú na nÓg. Supported by Creative Ireland and Dublin City Council Arts Office.

Tickets and Access

This event is free of charge but ticketed. Tickets can be booked via Eventbrite on our website.

Access to DCU All Hallows campus is by foot, via the pedestrian entrance on Church Avenue and via the entrance on Grace Park Road. Ticket collection will take place at both gates. The gates will be open to the general public from 12.30pm.

Creative workshops are both drop-in and ticketed. Tickets will be allocated on a first come first served basis.

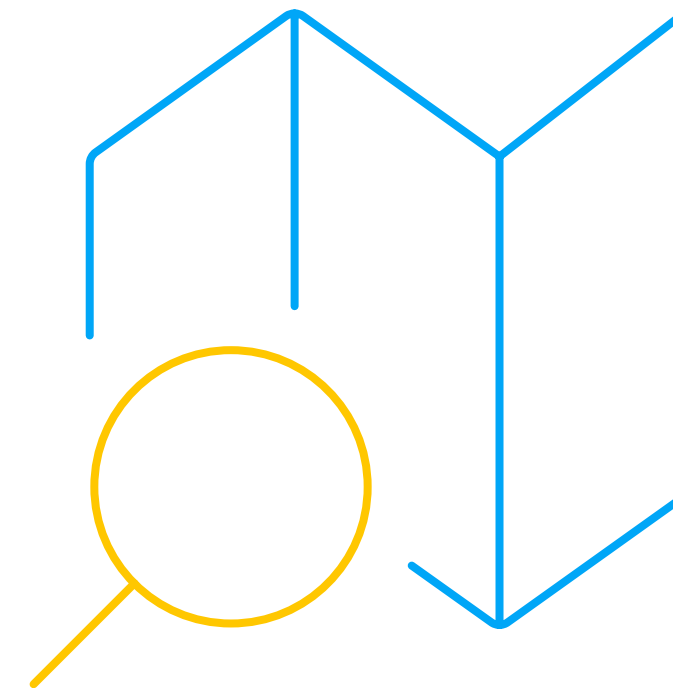

In the spirit of the festival's environmental theme, we ask people to walk, cycle or take public transport to All Hallows campus. Please note, there is no parking provision on campus for this event. Attendees with special requirements will be accommodated.

This is an outdoor event, performed on the All Hallows campus green. Attendees are invited to bring picnic blankets and small deck chairs to sit on. There will be a limited number of picnic tables available. An area will be designated for audience members who have sensory requirements. Attendees are not permitted to bring barbecues.

Accessibility Information

This site is fully accessible.

If you have any accessibility or sensory requirements please let us know upon booking by emailing; fiona.earley@dcu.ie, to make arrangements to avail of fast track entry and access to a quiet space.

Programme

The Badger Stage

1.00pm - 5.00pm | Suitable for all ages

Jazz and Jays with DCU Jazz Ensemble 1.00pm - 1.30pm

Chill out and unwind with the DCU Jazz Ensemble who will perform popular and contemporary pieces to ease you into your breezy afternoon picnic. DCU has a Centre for Jazz Performance which is highly regarded for its excellence. Its reputation is reflected in these vibrant and innovative jazz students.

Meadows and Melodies Concert with DCU Campus Choir 1.45pm - 2.15pm

Expect uplifting songs of hope inspired by nature and friendship from the DCU Campus Choir. With more than 25 staff members from across the University's three campuses, this choir sings a broad repertoire, from Medieval to modern musicals, under the direction of Christina Whyte.

Butterfly & Mockingbird Show with Zoë Conway & John McIntyre 2.30pm - 3.15pm

Created especially for children, visitors can expect a fun filled, musical extravaganza with sparkles of traditional, classical, contemporary and world music. Zoë Conway and John McIntyre use fiddle, guitar and voice to play on the theme of nature, animals, fairies and forest.

Woodland Creatures Dance Party with Olwyn Lyons 3.15pm - 3.45pm

Discover exciting insects, animals and water creatures in this family dance workshop with dancer Olwyn Lyons. Explore how animals move through dance, music and colourful imagery inspired by creatures from land and sky. Buzz like a bee, jump like a frog, hoot like an owl and see what woodland creature inspired moves you can invent!

Jigs and Jackdaws with DCU Trad Ensemble 4.00pm 4.30pm

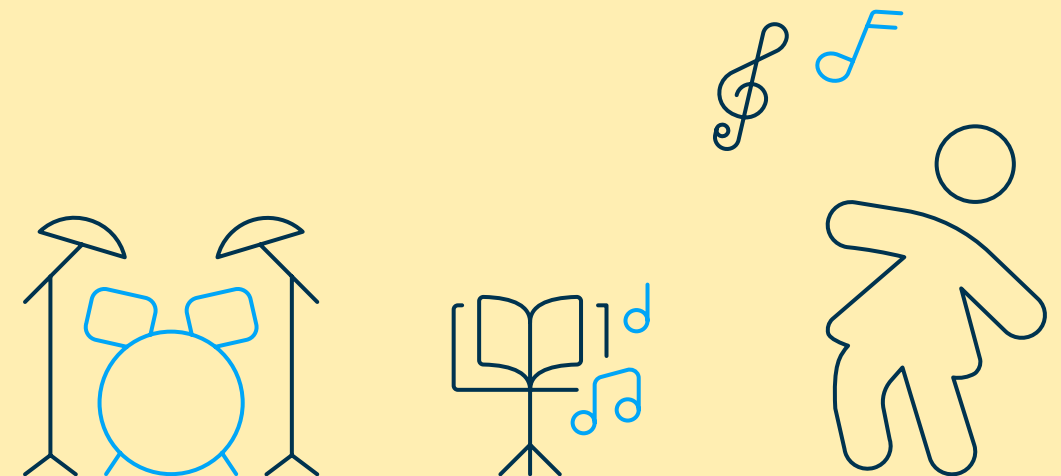

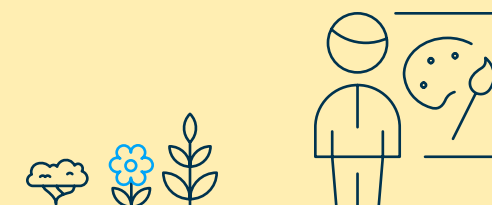

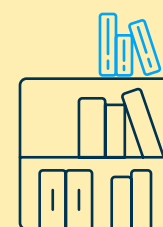

Rowdy jigs and polkas to arouse the jackdaws and to encourage shape throwing and toe tapping amongst our youngest visitors! DCU Trad Ensemble is a collection of the finest young traditional musicians across campus led by Dr Robert Harvey.

Mr. Fox's Circus Finale 4.30pm - 5.00pm

Join the madcap Mr. Fox, (aka circus performer Hugh W Brown) for an interactive, daring circus show filled with thrills, spills and plenty of laughs.
